Destination Lisbon

Lisbon is a very historical city with so many stories to tell, especially if we immerse ourselves in areas like the Alfama, Castelo, Graça and Mouraria.

We should also visit the area called Graça by catching the famous Tramway 28, a landmark of the city.

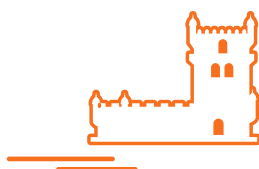

Saint George's Castle, right on top of the hill, is a must visit, with an incredible view over the city of Lisbon

Belém is synonymous with history and discoveries. It was from here that the great adventurers launched out on their mission to discover the World, sailing in fragile sailboats called caravels. It also has a more contemporary part, the Belem Cultural Centre. Here you can visit various cultural initiatives and numerous exhibits. Visiting the renovated Coach Museum is a must.

Lisbon is a city that invites a contemplative pause due to its scenic landscape with breathtaking views from various lookouts and its location next to the Tagus on several hills.

No other European capital has so many and such beautiful beaches close to downtown, which offers the best of the sea and the glamour of a unique coastal area.
