Destination Peniche

Peniche is a seaside town where the fishing industry goes hand in hand with tourism and the practice of water sports, such as surf, thus being known as “The Wave Capital”. Here, water sports lovers and sea-loving travellers find the right conditions for a unique stay.

The sea and the wide variety of beaches spreading across several kilometres make this destination even more appealing. The town is built on a peninsula whose westernmost point is the Carvoeiro Cape. Besides, it has many monuments and offers a gastronomy with flavours that are irresistible to any visitor.

When visiting Peniche, one should not miss going to Berlengas, which are almost wild islands considered UNESCO Heritage, and where the experience with nature reaches its fullness.
