DESTINATION PORTO

Visit Porto and it will feel like you're expanding within. Relish the old and the new while you enjoy a glass of one of the most valued wines in the world. The truth is Port wine was named after this ancient city, that also gave Portugal its name.

Much of Porto's heritage has been made of departures and trade, of her bourgeois and passionate hustle and bustle adding feeling to everything.

A world heritage as well, the city cuddles up in the river that binds her lovingly... Maybe that's why it conquers those who discover it around every corner.

The city of Porto is one of the oldest tourist destinations in Europe. Porto combines the charm of the Past (a cliché, but in this case a very true one) with the freshness of the Present. From contemporary Casa da Música to the 12th century Cathedral Church, ages merge in harmony through Porto's streets.

For a memorable stay in Porto, we recommend a visit to the followingsites: Casa da Música, Soares dos Reis Museum, Serralves Foundation, Cupertino de Miranda Foundation, Exponor, Eng. António de Almeida Foundation, Porto's Old Customs House Congress Center, Vilar Seminary, Kadoorie Mekor Haim Synagogue, Porto City Park.
